

Northern New York Agricultural Development Program 2020 Project Report APPENDIX: PHOTOS

E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance - Effect of Milking Equipment on Teat End Health: Phase II

Figure 1. Screen shot from the Spanish version of the milker-training e-learning module tested on 15 farms; E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance Project, NNYADP, 2020.

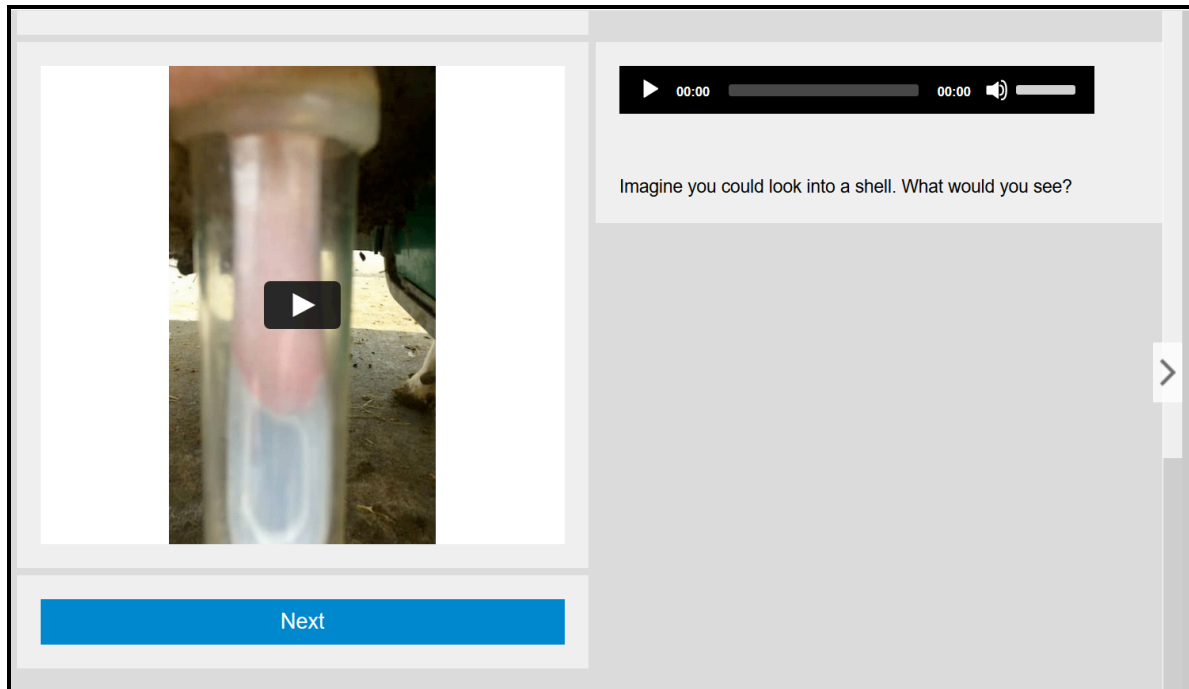

Figure 2. Screen shot from the English version of the milker-training e-learning module tested on 15 farms; E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance Project, NNYADP, 2020.

Figure 3. Photograph of milkers with their certificates from one farm training; E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance Project, NNYADP, 2020.

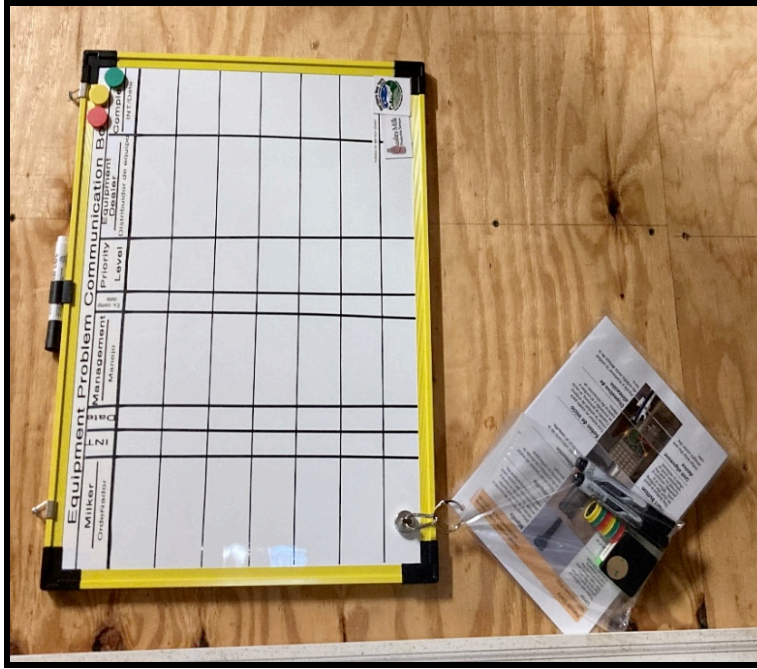

Figure 4. Photograph of the Equipment Problem Communication Whiteboard installed on a dairy; E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance Project, NNYADP, 2020.

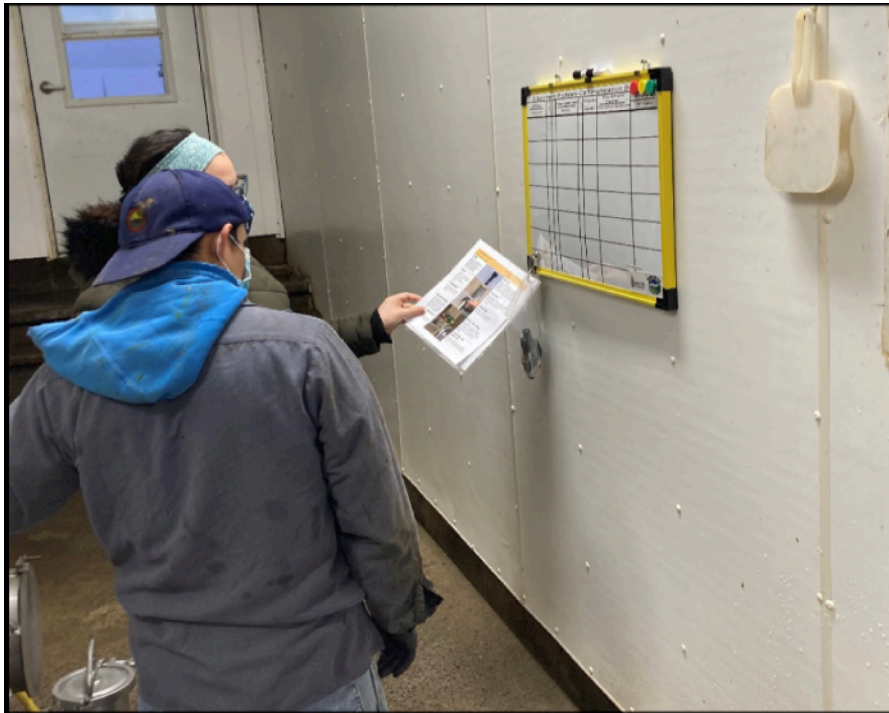

Figure 5. Photograph of a milker being trained on the Equipment Problem Communication Whiteboard; E-learning Training Systems as an Educational Approach for Dairy Farm Workers on Milk Quality and Parlor Performance Project, NNYADP, 2020.